

Catarrh

Is a complaint so common that comparatively few people are entirely free from it, so insidious that it gains a firm hold almost before the victim is aware of its presence, so dangerous as to seriously threaten the general health, and liable if neglected, to develop into bronchitis or consumption.

It is a mistake to consider catarrh merely a local trouble. It is unquestionably constitutional—a disease of the blood. As only for catarrh is testified to by many people whom it has cured, not for a time only, but permanently.

"For three years I have been troubled with catarrh and blood disease. I tried several doctors and a dozen different remedies, but none of them did me any good. A friend told me of Hood's Sarsaparilla and I thought I would try it. I took two bottles and began to see an improvement, and am now as well

Hence there may be catarrh of the head, of the bowels, or of any other part where the mucous membrane is found. Diarrhea and dysentery are but a manifestation of catarrh of the bowels.

The way to cure catarrh is to remove

REFORMED FOOTBALL.

Carlisle's Great Victory Alleged to Be One of Its Consequences.

That was a terrible revenge that little boy, Lubo, Maesuka, A-fra-of-a-Bear and their friends took upon the palefaced at Franklin field last Saturday, as well may the football heroes at Princeton, Harvard, Chicago and Minnesota tremble in their toga. Great Chief Warner, the palefaced medicine man of the Indians, is after the scalps of all the great college teams, and the writing on the wall, Carlisle 26, Pennsylvania 6, is portentous.

The football reformers now realize that they have changed the rules to exalt the red men. Both in strategy and tactics he is excelling the white man. The game is to the swift and the crafty; it has become a succession of ambushes and raids, in which reversion to type works out. We have mentioned Little Boy and A-fra-of-a-Bear because the names are vivid; there is no fear of weakness in the ranks of the braves, but great strength and cunning, ferocity in attack and staunchness in defence. Long will the glory of Mount Pleasant's dashing be sung in the wigwam—three touchdowns against Pennsylvania alone; and the fame of Houser, the bull, will never fade. Mr. William Edwards, a big chief himself in the days gone by, affirms that the palefaced Indians are warriors and heroes every one of them, and he is lost in amazement at their prodigious skill in the white man's game. He adjures the young specialists at Princeton to gird up their loins for the fray and dash fiercely to the attack when the whistle blows or all will be lost. But come what may, there will be mourning at Carlisle, for the palefaced of West Point will not meet the onset of the braves this year, and in A-fra-of-a-Bear and Maesuka see the scalps of the officers of the Great White Father hanging at their belts.—New York Sun.

PRESSURE FOR EXTRA SESSION

President Deluged With Demands for Action on Currency

FINANCIAL UPSET CAUSE

No Likelihood, However, That Roosevelt Will Take Such a Step—Would Mean False Alarm—But Currency Legislation Promises to Be Paramount.

Washington, Nov. 2.—A great wave of interest in the question of currency reform has swept over the country, in consequence of recent financial developments. There is widespread awakening to the necessity for legislation that will give real elasticity to the currency system. The president is getting evidence of this in the form of numerous letters and telegrams from many parts of the country suggesting reforms. Among the suggestions is that of an extra session of Congress, to be called at an early date, for the adoption of currency reform legislation.

There is no indication, however, of any purpose on the part of the president to call an extra session; but it is generally agreed that a highly important effort of recent financial happenings will be to force Congress, as soon as it meets in December, to give serious consideration to the need for such legislation.

Indications are numerous that the currency reform question may become paramount in both houses. Senators and members of the House are becoming more and more impressed with the need. The men who long have believed in a more elastic currency and who have been pioneers in urging it realize that now is the time to persuade Congress to do something, and consequently they will be extremely active at the coming session.

It is probable that legislation will result, though all keen observers of the situation recognize the difficulty of getting Congress to unite on any one of the various plans.

The objection that arises to an extra session is that to call one would tend to persuade the public that the financial situation is one of extreme gravity. This is precisely what the president is anxious to avoid.

The cabinet at its meeting yesterday discussed this matter, but the feeling was general that it would be unwise to take any such step. On high authority it is said that no extra session is contemplated. It is felt that there still is ample time for Congress to deal with the currency question at the regular long session, if it is disposed to do so.

PRESIDENT WILL NOT TAKE BACKWARD STEP.

Certain to Urge on Congress Legislation for Financial Reforms.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—That President Roosevelt will not reverse himself in his message or fail to urge vigorously on Congress the important railroad and trust legislation he has been advocating is asserted here by prominent men close to him. He is said to feel sure of his ground and to be unlikely to be altered from pressing his favorite policies because of financial conditions.

One of the things to which the administration will give much attention will be the Sherman anti-trust law, which the president would like to see revised so as to discriminate between proper and improper combinations.

Paul Morton, former secretary of the navy and head of the Equitable Life of New York, had a long talk with the president yesterday. He remained in the cabinet room a considerable time after the cabinet members had assembled. Mr. Morton would not say what he told the president, but there is little question he told him what he knew of the financial outlook. On departing Mr. Morton would say that the outlook was daily getting brighter.

PRESIDENT TO TAKE UP INDIAN FIGHT.

Dakota Utes, Hungry and Harshly Treated, Says Johnson.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Capt. Carter P. Johnson, the army officer who was sent to the corner of the world with the Ute Indians at Tanager Butte, D. R., reports the Utes are very hungry, their women and children are suffering, and they believe they have been unjustly treated.

Commissioner of Indian Affairs Leup had a conference with the president last night, at which action on the matter was probably decided upon.

A serious breach has arisen between the Indians and their agent, Maj. Downs, and there is danger of a collision at any moment, according to Capt. Johnson. He appeals to the authorities here to support him and to cause Maj. Downs to state harsh treatment of the Indians.

According to a dispatch from Maj. R. H. Hirst at Denver, it is believed that the Navajoe trouble in southern Utah and northern New Mexico is near an end. Capt. Willard, who commanded the expedition, has returned with a squad of the 5th Cavalry from Aneth, Utah, with 10 Indian prisoners. Oct. 28 the Indians opened fire on the Indian police, and skirmishes continued 10 minutes, during which three Indians were killed and one seriously wounded.

CHICAGO COLISEUM SMALL, SAYS NEW.

Has Been Looking Over Halls for the National Republican Convention.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—Harry S. New, chairman of the Republican national committee, has returned to Indianapolis from Chicago, where he went to inspect various public halls at the request of the Chicago national convention committee, which is making strenuous efforts to secure the Republican presidential convention next year.

Chairman New gave the Chicago committee no further encouragement than to promise that its invitation would be considered by the Republican national committee when it meets in Washington in December.

"I went to Chicago," said Mr. New yesterday, "to look over a number of halls. I visited the Coliseum, but told the committee I did not believe the national organization would accept it unless it could be made to hold more people than it held at the last convention. There is a project on foot to increase the seating capacity to 14,000."

WOUNDS WIFE, KILLS MAN, THEN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Tennesseean Wanted Woman to Withdraw Divorce Suit.

Memphis, Nov. 2.—As a result of domestic troubles, R. Rutherford, a former saloon keeper of Tipton, Tenn., Thursday night mortally wounded his wife and shot and killed Eugene H. Peete, a friend, then killed himself.

It is said Rutherford and his wife had separated and the latter had instituted divorce proceedings. Rutherford Thursday night went to her apartment and endeavored to have her withdraw the suit. Failing in his efforts, he was about to attack the woman when Peete entered the room.

ROCK CRUSHED 200 AS THEY FEEL 'QUAKE'

Torrent of Stones Overtook the Inhabitants of Karatagh—Every House Demolished.

New Bishara, Turkish, Nov. 2.—The catastrophe at Karatagh buried 400 of the 600 houses of the town.

Karatagh lies in a small amphitheatre among lofty hills, the Karatagh mountain hanging over it on one side and a river flowing on the other. At the height of the recent earthquake, a great section of the mountain broke away and slid rapidly upon the town.

Houses there were already falling from the violence of the earth shocks, and many of the luckless inhabitants, unable to escape through the narrow streets encumbered by debris, were caught and buried.

No building in the town was left standing, the earthquake leveling them all to their foundations.

All the survivors were without shelter and a relief expedition with supplies has left New Bishara for the scene of the disaster.

BRYAN'S MESSAGE.

Going to Say Something "Important" to Editors.

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 2.—William Jennings Bryan has "something of importance" to say to the Democratic editors of Indiana. It is so important that nothing but a heart to heart talk with them will suffice, and to that end A. B. Crampton, editor of the Carroll County Citizen-Times of Delphi has been delegated to write every Democratic editor in the state urging him to meet with Mr. Bryan at 1:30 o'clock on the afternoon of Monday, Nov. 4, at Lafayette.

Mr. Crampton is president of the Democratic Editorial Association of Indiana. Since the campaign of 1896 he has been one of Bryan's standbys in Indiana.

Mr. Crampton does not give the slightest intimation of what Mr. Bryan will say to the editors. W. J. Bryan requests a conference with all the Democratic editors of Indiana," says Mr. Crampton. "I am informed that Mr. Bryan has something of importance to say to them."

$24,416 VERDICT AGAINST THE B. & M.

Piper, Nervous Wreck by Concord Accident, Gets the Biggest Award in the County.

Concord, N. H., Nov. 2.—A verdict for $24,416 against the Boston & Maine railroad was returned in the superior court yesterday in favor of Harry L. Piper, who is a nervous wreck as the result of injuries he received. He sued for $30,000.

It is the largest verdict ever received in this county for personal injuries. Piper, who is 29 years old, was employed as a transfer man in this city by the American Express company. On Feb. 8, 1906 he was knocked down by a shifting engine in this station here and was dragged 100 feet. Specialists from Boston say he will never recover.

TAKING RELIGIOUS CENSUS.

Of Grand Isle County, the Same as in Lamolite County.

Burlington, Nov. 2.—Miss Edith M. Balch, home department secretary and field worker for the Vermont Sunday School association, went to North Hero today to arrange the preliminary work for taking a religious canvass of Grand Isle county, along the same lines that were pursued in securing the canvass of Lamolite county, which was successfully accomplished in August. This census will be the most complete ever attempted and will be invaluable to religious workers of all denominations.

SALOONS CLOSE IN KNOXVILLE.

They Are Shut Out by Act of Tennessee Legislature.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 2.—More than one hundred saloons in Knoxville closed at midnight Thursday as a result of the application of a legislative act by which cities of Tennessee can re-incorporate without having the saloon. During the few hours preceding the closing of the saloons, whiskey was sold at any price.

SAYS BEWARE OF BACKACHE

A Prescription to Prevent Serious Kidney Disease

MANY WAIT TOO LONG

Lame Back and Urinary Troubles Are Danger Signals—What to Do—Mix It at Home—Splendid for Rheumatism—Relief Prompt.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected, the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. It is not only a good, first-class physician, leave patient medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home as stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency (especially at night), painful, swelling and other urinary troubles, try the following simple remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla, three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anywhere can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism, either because it acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged-up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which, if not eliminated, remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues, causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal, notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of your kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

PROF. HAU ESCAPES SENTENCE OF DEATH

Grand Duke Frederick Has Changed the Court Verdict to Penal Servitude for Life.

London, Nov. 2.—The Berlin correspondent of the Standard says that Frederick, grand duke of Baden, acting on the advice of the minister of justice, has decided to commute the sentence of death passed on Karl Hau, formerly professor of Roman law at George Washington university, Washington, D. C., for the murder of Frau Miller, his mother-in-law, to penal servitude for life.

This decision is regarded as being based on the view that the evidence adduced at the trial was not sufficient to justify Hau's execution. Moreover, the grand duke, having just succeeded to the throne, does not wish to begin his reign by signing a death warrant.

Hau will shortly be removed to the penal settlement at Bruchsal.

In the meanwhile Hau's attorney is continuing his efforts to obtain a new trial.

WAITRESS IS BRIDE OF GOTHAM BROKER.

Fitzsimmons' Friends Say He Ate Many Times a Day to Bask in Her Smiles.

New York, Nov. 2.—Plain gold bands to be worn on the third finger of the left hand may now be accepted by pretty waitresses as appropriate tips. A precedent has been established by Joseph P. Fitzsimmons, a wealthy young broker, and his winsome young wife, who before her marriage was Miss Marion McCoy.

Until lately Miss McCoy was among the prettiest of the score of young women who chaperon the chins to and from the kitchen at a Broad street "social station" patronized by bankers and brokers. Fitzsimmons took a seat at her table three years ago, and since then, his friends say, he has been eating from six to ten meals a day.

Mary, another waitress, explained the romance to those at her table yesterday. She said:

"I'm spoken for," when attention was called to a ring on her third finger. "But I didn't get a broker. I'm going to marry a retired milkman."

GIRL SLAIN AS HUNDREDS WATCH.

Miss Frazier Steps on Track as Train Backs.

Taunton, Mass., Nov. 2.—Ida Frazier, 10 years of age, was instantly killed at the Central passenger station yesterday, while waiting for a train. The young girl, with several hundred others, was waiting to go to Attleboro, where she was employed. To take the train they are obliged to cross the tracks.

She stood on a track on which a train was backing down, and although scores of people called to her, she was knocked down and her head crushed. She lived with her parents on Jefferson court.

VOTE TO STAY ON STRIKE.

Arlington Mill Operatives Will Continue the Fight in Lawrence.

BRAINS AT PREMIUM, SAYS HENRY CLEWS

Tells Yale Students Not to Be Discouraged by Words of Pessimists.

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 2.—Before the members of Prof. William B. Bailey's class in political economy at Yale yesterday, Henry Clews, the New York banker, delivered a short address to the students in which he said in part:

"The pessimist is abroad preaching the gospel of discontent, and a favorite text is that the young man has no show or little chance to get on in life. Do not be misled or discouraged by such false doctrine."

"There never was a time when brains were at a greater premium than at the present, nor courage, education, industry and energy more requisite or in greater demand."

"The harder you have to struggle to complete your education, the better you will be fitted for the battle of life."

"Disappointments may embarrass you, but you must conquer them, instead of allowing them to conquer you."

"Every victory thus won will be an incentive to further efforts and achievements and will provide a stepping stone to success."

GOMPERS SUED TO STOP BOYCOTT.

To Appear Before Examiner in the Van Cleave Injunction Proceedings.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—President Samuel Gompers and Secretary Frank Morrison of the American Federation of Labor have been served with subpoenas to appear before an examiner appointed by the court in the proceedings instituted by President James W. Van Cleave of the Buck Store & Range company of St. Louis for an injunction to restrain the two named and the other members of the executive council of the American Federation of Labor from pushing a boycott against the store company.

The subpoenas called upon the two officers to bring with them the minutes of the executive council and also certain volumes of the American Federationist, the official organ of the federation.

It is understood that the testimony to be used at the hearing Nov. 8, when the court will decide whether a temporary injunction shall be granted to restrain the federation officials from prosecuting their boycott pending the determination of the suit.

STRONG SUPPORT FOR RIDGELY

And Many Banks Are to Take Out More Circulation.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 2.—Comptroller of the Currency Ridgely received at his residence after office hours Thursday about ninety telegrams from banks in regard to his suggestion that they take out increased circulation, indicating a general purpose to assist in collecting the money stringency, and approximately a hundred additional telegrams awaited him at his office yesterday morning. So far as is known here the movement is receiving universal approbation and support.

INJUNCTION MAY AGAIN BAR HARRIMAN.

20 Days for Answer, Deciding Before the Illinois Central Meeting Is Doubtful.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 2.—Attorneys for E. H. Harriman are preparing to enter appearance Monday before Judge Ball of the superior court, who issues the temporary injunction by means of which Stuyvesant Fish tied up 296,721 shares of Illinois Central stock controlled by Harriman.

The attorneys will have 20 days in which to answer the bill introduced by Mr. Fish's lawyers, so it is doubtful whether the case can be disposed of before Dec. 18, the date set for the adjourned meeting of stockholders.

ROCK FOUNDATION AT GATUN.

All Doubt on This Point Has Now Been Removed.

Colon, Nov. 2.—New borings made over the entire area of the Gatun dam show that rock foundations are everywhere possible. All previous doubt on this point has thus been removed, and work on the design for the lock gates and sluiceways is advancing steadily. New borings have been made also near the Pedro Miguel locks and dams, and the excavation on the site of the lock there is proceeding rapidly.

MAY TIE UP BRITISH ROADS

Strike Voted by Amalgamated Trainmen

RECOGNITION OF UNION

Ninety-Seven Thousand Men Will Probably Be Involved—A Weekly Loss of $14,000,000 by the Strike Is Estimated.

London, Nov. 1.—The executive committee of the Amalgamated Railway Servants yesterday adopted a resolution to call a general strike.

Richard Bell, M. P., general secretary of the Amalgamated society of Railway Servants and leader of the strike movement, in an interview yesterday afternoon on the effects of the resolution said:

"It means all that it says. Not only the members of the society but every man engaged in the railway service in the United Kingdom will receive a notice, and it is known that many thousands of men outside the society are in sympathy, we resolved to call on every one to come out."

The British railway employees and the companies have been at loggerheads for some time past, on the question whether the Amalgamated society of railway servants would strike to secure recognition of the organization and a new scale of wages and hours and finally it was decided by the employees to reach a decision by ballot. The ballots were to be returned, marked "yes" or "no" by October 26, last.

The council of the railway companies association in its reply to the men said that the council had no power to appoint representatives to meet the delegates of the unions, as proposed, and discuss questions which affected the relations between individual companies and their employees.

The seriousness of a railway stop in the United Kingdom is difficult to over-estimate. It has been pointed out in the despatches from London that it will not only paralyze the industries, but soon will starve out the inhabitants of all the interior cities of England, where there are only food supplies for a few days on hand.

SOCIALISTS ACTIVE IN PICKING ADAMS JURY.

Take Up His Cause at Murder Trial in Idaho.

Rathdrum, Idaho, Nov. 2.—Socialism is playing a conspicuous part in the work of securing a jury to try Steve Adams, charged with the murder of Fred Tyler. It is contended by the prosecution that Adams is under the protection of the Socialists and the Western Federation of Miners.

He is alleged to be implicated in the assassination of ex-Governor Steunenberg, and while held as a witness by the state is alleged to have made a confession corroborating that of Harry Orchard. Adams, it is alleged, subsequently repudiated this confession, and he was then tried at Wallace, Idaho, for the murder of Tyler. The jury failed to agree and Adams is now on second trial.
